Longford County Council launches WiFi4EU - free Wi-Fi

Longford County Council welcomes the rollout of free public Wi-fi in Longford Ballymahon and Drumlish. The Wifi4EU scheme is an initiative of the European Commission (EU) which provides funding to local authorities to provide free Wi-Fi access in public places.

Longford County Council were successful in securing €15,000 in call 1 of the WiFi4EU initiative. This €15,000 in European funding will be co-funded by the Department of Rural and Community Development, bringing the total funding for this project in County Longford to €30,000.

Access to free public Wi-Fi is seen as an enabler for economic growth and promotes County Longford as a progressive county.

Ms. Peggy Nolan Cathaoirleach of Longford Municipal District stated "that she is delighted that free Wi-Fi is now available in Longford Town and invited everybody to come into town to shop, get pampered have a bite to eat and drink and connect to our new free Wi-Fi and continue to stay safe and stay connected"

Mr. Garry Murtagh Cathaoirleach of Granard Municipal District stated "Free Wi-Fi is now available here in Drumlish so come into the village and support your local businesses and connect to the new free Wi-Fi and continue to stay safe and stay connected"

Mr. Colm Murray Cathaoirleach of Ballymahon Municipal District stated "Free Wi-Fi is now available here in Ballymahon. This WiFi4EU initiative complements our upcoming digital strategy by promoting access to the internet for our citizens and visitors so let's shop local, stay safe and stay connected"

Mr. Paul Ross Cathaoirleach stated "Longford County Council are delighted to launch this free public Wi-Fi. With our rural Broadband Connection Points being rolled out around the County and Wi-Fi now in Longford, Ballymahon and Drumlish, we are becoming one of the most digitally connected Counties"

Ms. Christine Collins Broadband & Digital Officer stated "This project is funded through the EU and Department of Rural and Community Development, to promote access to Wi-Fi connectivity in public spaces in municipalities throughout Europe. We are delighted today to launch the rollout of this free WiFi4EU network in Longford, Ballymahon and Drumlish. I would like to commend the local businesses and community to whom without their support this initiative wouldn't be possible in particular Moments Café, Newsround, Pdraig Loughrey, Dobson Jewellers, Longford Shopping Centre, Coral leisure, Temperance Hall, Big Bites, Kevin Smith, Eugene O'Reilly and the Libraries. I would also like to thank VEI Global for all their efforts in installing and commissioning the WiFi4EU network during this difficult period for us all."

Keep Well Campaign

The Government Plan for Living with COVID-19: Resilience and Recovery 2020-2021 highlights the important role that individual and community resilience will play in contributing to our ongoing response to COVID-19.

Cathaoirleach Paul Ross welcomed the recent launch of the new 'Keep Well' campaign, by An Taoiseach, Micheál Martin TD and ministerial colleagues.

This 'Keep Well' campaign builds on the 'in this Together' campaign that happened earlier this year and aims to support people and communities in being resilient through minding their physical and mental health and wellbeing over the coming months.

'A range of wellbeing activities and interesting initiatives will be delivered by the Council with local partners over the winter months to help people keep well and active and I would urge you all to engage in and participate in these activities and enjoy your local amenities' said Cathaoirleach Ross.

The campaign is focussed on five themes: Keeping Active, Staying Connected, Switching Off and being creative, Eating Well and Minding your Mood.

The Council, through the established Community Forum will co-ordinate the local response to local needs, work with Sports Ireland and deliver wellbeing programmes locally.

The Community Library network have commenced the 'Rewarding Reads' and 'Ireland Reads' initiatives and will going forward deliver other creative initiatives across the five themes of the 'Keep Well' programme.

The Cathaoirleach of Longford County Council Cllr. Paul Ross, and the Chief Executive, Mr. Paddy Mahon encourage all in our County to engage in this innovative campaign.

Further details on all activities and initiatives at county level will be made available on the Council's website www.longfordcoco.ie
