Agenda item	Member	Discussion	Actions / Who
Item 1	Lorraine O'Connor	The specifics of what this project can deliver were discussed. It was proposed that the project goes ahead, but if possible at the same time as the survey. So as to maximise information gathered. Questions about funding were also discussed. http://spaceengagers.org/	Lorraine to follow up.

Item 2	Lorraine O'Connor	Research is still ongoing by the subcommittee and will be presented at a later date.	Subcommittee
Item 3	Lorraine O'Connor	The survey was discussed and several items are to be amended. Gerry Warnock wanted to tell people that Longford had cheaper parking fees than other towns. Derek Scanlon wanted changes in the phrasing of some of the questions. Lorcan Gearty suggested some new questions.	Lorraine to update
A.O.B	Lorraine O'Connor	Noel Lee suggested that the committee see a copy of the initial feasibility study to be carried out on Connolly Bks. A general discussion took place about suitable uses for the site. Suggestions included – County Museum, Cultural Centre, Running track, artisan workshops and many more.	Study was emailed shortly after meeting by Patricia Shaughnessy
